Family-to-Family Class

February 2nd NAMI offers the Family-to-Family Education Program that will take place at St. Clare's Episcopal Church in Pleasanton.

Family-to-Family is a free 12-week course for family caregivers of individuals with severe brain disorders (mental illnesses). The course is taught by trained family members. All instruction and course materials are free for class participants.

The Family-to-Family curriculum focuses on schizophrenia, bipolar disorder (manic depression), clinical depression, panic disorder and obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD). The course discusses the clinical treatment of these illnesses and teaches the knowledge and skills that family members need to cope more effectively.

For further information, contact Doris Watson at 925-682-7165 or e-mail at F2F@aol.com

Family-to-Family... from the inside

by Mike Koslosky

Last year I had the opportunity to enroll in Family-to-Family with the hope of learning something about this Bipolar Type 2 beast that had invaded our home like an alien bursting from the core of a previously healthy person. The idea of a 12-week course seemed daunting but after the initial meeting I found myself eager to return. The horrors in my life seemed minor compared to the drama surrounding me. My classmates shared unimaginable tales of distress, fear, sadness and despair. But we had each other. We learned from one another, shared successes, bared our exasperations, but most importantly we were able to understand what our loved ones were going through. We discovered why and how the brain operates in mentally ill people, what medications do and don't do, how to support our loved one in their road to recovery and ways in which we can advocate for their long-term needs. Tips on legal rights, availability of support services, pathways through the medical maze, and techniques to manage our own life to prevent melt down were life savers for all of us.

For yourself and your loved one, take this course. You will never be sorry.

Our Mission

"NAMI Tri-Valley in collaboration with other community agencies and organizations provides information and referrals to resources, education programs and advocacy support to consumers and families."

President's Outlook

Extended well-wishes and happy new year to everyone. 2006 will bring about new and exciting local projects and events. January promises a full month that includes support groups as well as a unique opportunity to be a part of the San Francisco Bay Area NAMI Walk being held in June.

On Tuesday January 10 at the ValleyCare Library, guest speaker Dede Ranahan, director of the SF Bay Area NAMI Walk, will inspire and guide us on how to participate in the June fundraiser. One team is already formed under the auspices of Krista Radojevich. Come join us, get involved and have fun while helping to raise public awareness about mental illnesses.

February's guest presenter will be Marye Thomas, M.D., Director of Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services.

May is Mental Health Month and NAMI Tri-Valley has partnered with the Valley Council on Mental Health to host a visual display in the Livermore Library's main hall. The display educates and provides helpful resources plus handouts. The other months will fill in quickly and we will keep you fully informed.

Start your new year by filling out the membership form and joining NAMI Tri-Valley. When you do, your dues will go toward developing mental health educational programs and collaborative projects that directly benefit our local communities.

Marsha McInnis,
President, NAMI Tri-Valley

Launch Our Library

Have a book that you've read and is now collecting dust on your bookshelf? We would love to start collecting books so that we could start a lending library. If you are interested in donating or lending a book please contact Krista Radojevich at 925-560-0842 or trivalleybipolar@hotmail.com

NAMI Tri-Valley's January Meeting Guest Speaker: Dede Ranahan

January's NAMI Tri-Valley meeting welcomes Dede Ranahan, Director of the San Francisco-Bay Area NAMI Walk. Come find out how to participate and if you participated in last year's Walk, bring your photographs and be prepared to share your stories about what the Walk meant to you and why you will be walking again in 2006.

Hear plans about the 2006 Walk, pick up materials, Walk brochures, sign-up forms, etc. – to help you build your Walk teams. Learn how to get the word out about NAMI and mental illness. We are raising awareness, educating the public, reducing stigma and having a wonderful time in Golden Gate Park.

The meeting will take place at ValleyCare Library, 5725 W. Las Positas Blvd, Pleasanton on Tuesday, January 10 from 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm. Refreshments will be provided.

Beginning February, the NAMI meetings will take place the first Monday evening of the month at the Livermore Library.

FREE

Workshops and Seminars

Tom Wootton, author of The Bipolar Advantage, will be visiting the Bay Area in the month of January. He will be conducting free workshops, and a free two-day seminar. The Bipolar Advantage is a wonderful book that takes a positive yet irreverent look at the ups and downs of bipolar disorder. Many Tri-Valley consumers saw Mr. Wootton at a conference in Sacramento this past summer, and have spoken enthusiastically about the presentation. They came away with a positive outlook on a difficult disorder.

Mr. Wootton will be conducting a workshop at the Castro Valley DBSA meeting on January 13th at 7:15pm.

Eden Hospital Conference Center
Conference Room A, Ground Floor
20103 Lake Chabot Road, Castro Valley.

The two-day seminar will take place in Berkeley on January 14th and 15th.

County Board Approval of the Mental Health Services Act

On December 20, 2005, the Alameda County Board of Supervisors approved submission of the MHSA Community Services and Supports plan to California Department of Mental Health, (DMH).

The next steps are to do the necessary editing of the Plan based on public comments, appending a summary and submitting the plan to DMH for approval.

Wellness and Recovery Training

Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services is very pleased to have Mark Ragins, MD, provide an all day training for providers, consumers, and family members on Wednesday, February 1, 2006. Mark is a psychiatrist at The Village Integrated Service Agency, in Long Beach, a program known nationally for its practice of wellness and recovery principles.

Transforming the System: A Practical Approach to Implementing Wellness & Recovery Practices

Mark Ragins, M.D.

Medical Director and Staff Psychiatrist
The Village Integrated Service Agency, Long Beach, CA

- Participants will be able to describe the four stages of Wellness & Recovery.
- Participants will identify at least one way that Wellness & Recovery principles are already being implemented in their current work environments.
- Participants will be able to identify at least one additional step that can be taken to further integrate the four stages of Wellness & Recovery into their practice strategies.
- Participants will be able to identify ethical and risk management issues related to Wellness & Recovery practices.
